NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP YEAR

The year "2022" reaches across the top of the right side of the ring, recognizing this year's National Championship win.

LA CITYSCAPE

The iconic Los Angeles skyline and scattered palm trees decorate the ring's right side, honoring the city where the championship was held.

15 DAWG COLLAR SPIKES

The team's "NATIONAL CHAMPIONS" title sits within a spiked, gold-tone dog collar. There are 15 spikes in total, to celebrate the Bulldogs' incredible 15-0 season.

DNA TRAITS

Georgia Football's four DNA traits — Toughness, Connection, Resiliency and Composure — are stamped inside the ring.

"HUNT"

This word stands alone on the outer band, as a nod to Coach Smart's message to the team: "Be the hunter, not the hunted."

4 TITLES

Two white stones rest in the base of each gold-tone trophy; each individual stone represents one of the team's four national titles.

107 WHITE STONES

These 107 shimmering white stones in the top of the ring represent the total number of points that the team scored in the CFP semifinal and championship combined.
